

LEBANON CRISIS

March 9, 2021

Global Situational Awareness

A theme of discontent continues in Lebanon, marked for the last several years by economic crises, corruption, and ineffective governance. The situation was exacerbated in 2020 by COVID-19, as well as a catastrophic explosion in the port of Beirut with major effects on infrastructure, the economy, politics, and public faith. Public protests are a regular fixture and given their support across sectarian lines could lead to further escalation of this national crisis.

Babel Channels provides breaking news and topic specific coverage for countries such as Lebanon, enhancing awareness and insight regarding political unrest and related developments such as governmental responses, reactions by the military, effects on local currency and business, impact on transportation and healthcare, security measures, and international reactions. Some of this noteworthy material that Babel Channels recently illuminated follows:

With coverage in more than 350 countries, states, territories, and cities around the world and the ability to help users understand developments in more than 200 languages, Babel Channels is your tool to understand what is happening regarding civil unrest around the globe and in particular countries such as Lebanon. Babel Street persistently canvasses a dynamic array of global information on the topic and presents pertinent material in Babel Channels.

Analysis is based on information derived from publicly or commercially available data sources. Babel Street expresses no representations, warranties, or assurances on the accuracy of the publicly available data but has used analytical rigor in generating its assessment.*